GOAL and OBJECTIVE

The goal of NARBO is to help achieve Integrated Water Resources Management (IWRM) in river basins throughout Asia. NARBO's objective is to strengthen the capacity and effectiveness of River Basin Organizations (RBOs) in promoting IWRM and improving water governance, through training and the exchange of information and experience among RBOs and their associated water sector agencies and knowledge partner organizations in Asia, and to advise on the establishment of RBOs in Asia.

ACTIVITIES

NARBO is holding various activities to achieve our goals.

Information Sharing Activities

NARBO shares useful information on IWRM in river basins, good practices and lessons learned through website and publications.

Annual Report

Thematic Workshops

Thematic Workshops are organized in response to member's needs for NARBO activities, focusing on the specific themes. We have conducted workshops on Water Allocation and Water Rights, Sustainable Management for Water Resources Infrastructures and Water-Related Disaster and its Management. Action programs which were summarized at each workshop as a result of the workshop were proposed to each organization, and it was incorporated into their activities.

IWRM Training

Training courses are organized for capacity development of RBOs in implementing IWRM among member organizations. Since 5th Training in Viet Nam, NARBO has been using "IWRM Guidelines at River Basin Levels" which was launched by UNESCO in 2009 as a main training textbook. Outcomes of the training have been contributed to establish IWRM plan in their river basins.

Twinning Program

NARBO's Twinning Program is a program to exchange staff among members to exchange information and experiences among members for improving water resources management. This program is very useful in exchanging technology and sharing practical solution on IWRM. Twinning Program is one of the features of NARBO activities.

High level meeting and International Seminar

NARBO conducted international conferences such as '1st NARBO IWRM Executive Retreat on Leadership in River Basins' and 'NARBO International Seminar on Corporate RBOs in Asia' in 2011. Intensive discussions were made among high level officials, RBO leaders and water champions. Basically, we agreed that i) Importance of good leadership and the value of dialogue and networking; and ii) Necessity of better documentation of experiences of basin-level IWRM in Asia and working together through NARBO in sharing knowledge and good practices.

General Meeting

NARBO General Meeting is held in every two years, and reviews the past two years activities and approves new action program and Management Team. Workshop and Study Visit to look for solutions on specific topics are also held. It is also an important opportunity to share knowledge and experience of each member organization and make the best use of the consultation to Knowledge Partners.
